

Adult & Workforce Education

Free Classes!

Prepare for the challenge of finding a JOB in the 21st century:

- Prepare for the GED test
- Prepare for successful entry into college-level courses
- Learn computer skills

Learn English as a Second Language:

- Use basic English as needed for daily survival
- Become familiar with American culture
- Practice conversation

Registration

Students may register and begin classes at any time throughout the year.

For more information or to register for class at any of the sites, call Parkland College at 217/351-2580.

Class Locations

Classes are held at Parkland's campus and other sites in the district.

- Parkland College campus, 2400 W. Bradley Ave., Champaign
- Parkland at Rantoul, 200 S. Fredrick, Rantoul
- MiRaza Community Center 113 Collins St., Arcola
- Illinois Employment & Training Center 1307 N. Mattis, Champaign
- Urban League of Champaign County 314 S. Neil, Champaign

Better job.

Better life.

Better get your GED.

GED
Illinois
Online

Get out of the classroom and onto the Internet!

- Study at home or anywhere you have Internet access.
- GED Illinois Online covers math, writing, reading, social studies, science, plus a section on test taking strategies.
- Each lesson takes about 50 minutes, but you work at your own pace.
- Online Help is available.

For more information, call 217/351-2580.

Disability Accommodations

It is the policy of Parkland College Adult and Workforce Education to provide, on a flexible and individualized basis, reasonable accommodations to students who have disabilities that may affect their ability to participate in class activities or to meet class requirements. Students with disabilities are encouraged to contact Becky Osborne, Room X149, 353-2082, to discuss their needs for accommodations.

In fiscal year 2008 (FY08), approximately 42% ($179,103) of the total cost of the Parkland College Adult Education and Family Literacy Program is provided through federal funds under Title II of the Workforce Investment Act.

Wanted: Literacy Volunteer Tutors!

Make a difference in your community.

- Help an adult learn.
- Become a volunteer tutor.
- Twelve hours of training is required to become an adult literacy volunteer.

Project READ literacy volunteer tutors:

- help adults improve basic reading, writing, math, and English language skills,
- work one-on-one with adult students and also assist teachers in Adult Basic Education, and English as a Second Language classes,
- tutor at satellite sites throughout Champaign Urbana and surrounding communities.

Call 217/353-2662 to schedule an orientation to the program.

This project is made possible by a grant Awarded by the Illinois State Library (ISL), a Division of the Office of Secretary of State, using state funds designated for literacy.