2017-2018 Student Loan Default Verification

Last Name

First Name

Student's ID Number

The U.S. Department of Education's Loan records indicate that you have defaulted on a Federal Student Loan. To be eligible for financial aid – grants, loans, and work study – you must resolve your defaulted student loan(s).

Student Loan Default Verification – please complete Section A and B.

Section A:

- I have accessed my student record at <https://nslsds.ed.gov> and have found that I have defaulted loans from the following Loan Agency/College(s):

Name of Loan Agency/College

Name of Loan Agency/College

Name of Loan Agency/College

Name of Loan Agency/College

Section B:

- I have attached a copy of the letter(s) from each Loan Agency/College(s) stating that my defaulted loans are no longer in a defaulted status (i.e. Title IV Eligibility letter from Department of Education, Default Clearance Letter from your servicer, etc.). The letter must clearly state that your loans are no longer in default.

 If you have multiple loans in default from various agencies or schools, you will have to submit a separate letter for each Loan Agency or College

Each letter must be dated within the past 30 days when submitted to our office.
